Finance Committee Meeting Thursday May 21st 25.

Present: J Lothead in the Chair.

Mess^{rs} R Whitworth, H L Boardman, S W Herbert, H Slatter, G Robson, J H Taylor, R Bennett, J C Payne, W H Andrew, F L Eaton, and J Gibson.

M^r Robson gave figures shewing difference between Income and Expenditure and estimated that there would be £150 less income than expenditure during the season, taking into consideration the increased rent and rates and the average income and expenditure for these years.

A considerable amount of discussion took place regarding the obtaining of new members, dropping entrance fees for a period and to increase the income.

It was decided that each sub-committee go carefully into the question of reducing expenses to see if it is possible to curtail same as much as possible.

It was proposed by H Slatter, seconded by R Whitworth that no unusual expenditure be incurred during the Season without a month's notice being given in respect of such expenditure.
