

GREENS COMMITTEE MEETING held 10th September 1959

PRESENT - H. Greaves Esq., (Captain) in the chair, and 10 Members,
Messrs. Broucher, Broadbent, Baxendale, Plant, Gregory,
Bolt, Lees, Butlin & Buckley.

Apology for absence received from Mr. J.H. Firth.

The Minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

Matters arising from last meeting minutes, was the question as to whether groundsmen were fully covered when riding the Tractor and the schedule covering this matter was read from the Royal Insurance Co. policy No. 6B1936. The Committee considered the cover adequate.

RESOLVED That Mr. R. Plant and the Groundsman (E. Brooks) enquire into the advisability and obtaining and dressing certain fairways with sewage fertiliser at the present time.

Mr. Brooks was instructed to report to the local authority the condition of the drain alongside the eighth green which appeared to take away waste matter from the adjoining houses and was causing a nuisance.

H Greaves Captain.
