Count back procedure in the event of ties in the Qualifying stages

Club Championship

- a. the lowest second qualifying round score will count.
- b. then the lowest back nine of the second qualifying round score will count.
- c. then the lowest last 6 holes, the lowest last 3 holes and finally the lowest last hole of the second qualifying score will count.
- d. If there is still a tie, then the last six holes, three holes and final hole of the first nine holes of the second qualifying score will be considered in turn

If a count back fails to produce a winner for any of the qualifying positions, a draw of lots by the Competition Committee will follow.

'A' Championship Salver

- a. the lowest back nine of the single qualifying round score will count.
- b. then the lowest last 6 holes, the lowest last 3 holes and finally the last hole of the qualifying round score will count.

If a count back fails to produce a winner for any of the qualifying positions, a draw of lots by the Competition Committee will follow.

'B' Championship

- a. the lowest back nine of the single qualifying round score will count.
- b. then the lowest last 6 holes, the lowest last 3 holes and finally the last hole of the qualifying round score will count.

If a count back fails to produce a winner for any of the qualifying positions, a draw of lots by the Competition Committee will follow.

Draws

General Numerical Draws for the scratch match play stages of each Championship will be performed thereafter. In each draw, the leading qualifier will be seeded number 1 and the final qualifier will be seeded number 16.

It is hoped the match play draws for all the Championships will be available on the evening of 24th May and will be posted in the clubhouse and on the Club website by noon on Sunday 25th May 2025.

Tied matches will play 'sudden death' extra holes beginning at the 1st hole until a winner has been determined.

The Championships will be run in accordance with the Rules of Golf as laid down by the Royal & Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews. In the event of any disputes, the decision of the Competition Committee will be final.
