INFORMATION FOR MEMBERS

All members are subject to the Rules of Aberdovey Golf Club

Members' Club Hub:

Please ensure that you register for the Members' Club Hub as this contains everything you need to know about your golf, your club accounts, news items and important Club documents.

To register, go to the members page on the Club website [www.aberdoveygolf.co.uk] and follow the link; or download the 'ClubV1 members hub' app from your normal provider.

Online Tee Reservations:

Access BRS "Book a Tee Time" through the Club Hub or Club website, or download the BRS Golf app. Your username is your 4-digit membership number. Playing Members can reserve tee times for up to 90 days in advance for casual golf, and up to 30 days in advance for Club Competitions.

World Handicap System:

If Aberdovey is your home club for handicap purposes, in order to access your handicap record you will need to register with Wales Golf. Please go to: <https://members.clubhouse.walesgolf.org>. The membership number required to register is your CDH number.

Guests:

Playing members may on any one day, invite up to 3 bona fide guests to play with them on payment of a member's guest rate green fee. No individual guest may play the course more than 5 times in any one calendar year, and all guests must play the course in the company of the member so introducing them.

Wales Golf Tournaments:

When the course is closed for Wales Golf tournaments, the Club endeavours to arrange courtesy golf at other clubs which will be communicated at the time.

The Association of James Braid Courses:

Aberdovey is a member of this Association and members benefit from reduced rate green fees at over 300 association courses. There is a list of member courses on the Club Hub.

Reciprocal Agreements:

Members can currently benefit from reciprocal arrangements with the golf clubs listed below. Please note that tee-times must be booked in advance and proof of membership of AGC (e.g. handicap certificate) will be required.

Please ask the Office for details on how to book.

Smoking:

SMOKING IS PROHIBITED within the clubhouse building (including on the balcony), the pro's shop and dormy accommodation. This includes the use of e-cigarettes.

Dress Standards:

On the golf course, members and their guests should wear accepted golf attire, SOFT SPIKES are mandatory at all times. In the clubhouse, a smart standard of casual dress is required; beachwear and ripped jeans are not permitted. Jacket and tie, or the equivalent for ladies, is expected when the occasion/function demands. Hats should be removed in the bar, lounge and dining area.

Dogs:

Competitors in Club competitions or matches may not take dogs with them whilst playing. Out of courtesy to players, spectators following games are also requested not to take dogs with them. Dogs, other than guide dogs, are not allowed in the clubhouse or on the balcony.

ALL DOGS MUST BE KEPT ON LEADS AT ALL TIMES

Alternative Starting Places:

Members and visitors who have paid a green fee may not commence play at any hole other than the first hole without the express permission of the Pro's Shop or the Office.

The playing of 9 holes is at the discretion of the Pro's Shop or Office and will not be permitted during busy periods.

Course Priority - Slow Play:

At all times three-ball and four-ball games must invite a two-ball game through. Three and four-ball games have equal standing. During competitions two-balls and three-balls are of equal standing. If any match fails to keep its place on the course and loses a clear hole, it must allow the match following to pass.

Other:

No match may proceed to the 1st tee until it is clear and no match may drive off the 1st tee until the preceding match has cleared the first ditch. The Committee requires that there shall be one bag of clubs for each player.
