

Club Captaincy Skills Set

The table below outlines a list of key skill sets that the Board of Directors considers essential. While not exhaustive, successful candidates must demonstrate proficiency in these areas.

| Qualities/Skills | Description |
|---------------------------|---|
| Leadership | Ability to inspire and guide club members, committees, and staff effectively. |
| Communication Skills | Excellent verbal and written communication to interact with members, staff, and external parties. |
| Interpersonal Skills | Ability to build strong relationships with members and staff, fostering a positive club atmosphere. |
| Organisational Skills | Strong skills in organising events, meetings, and club activities efficiently. |
| Decision-Making | Ability to make informed and timely decisions for the benefit of the club and its members. |
| Problem-Solving Skills | Aptitude for addressing issues and conflicts constructively and diplomatically. |
| Knowledge of Golf | In-depth knowledge of golf rules, etiquette, and the sport's culture. |
| Event Management | Skills in planning and executing club events and social gatherings. |
| Conflict Resolution | Ability to mediate and resolve disputes among members efficiently. |
| Commitment and Dedication | Willingness to invest time and energy into club activities and responsibilities. |
| Integrity and Ethics | Strong sense of ethics and integrity, maintaining the club's standards and reputation. |
| Networking Skills | Ability to network with potential sponsors, partners, and the broader golf community. |
| Teamwork | Ability to work collaboratively with the board, committees, and club staff. |
| Collaboration with Board | Skills to effectively work alongside the Board of Directors, aligning club goals with strategic plans |